THE 2024 SENIORS!

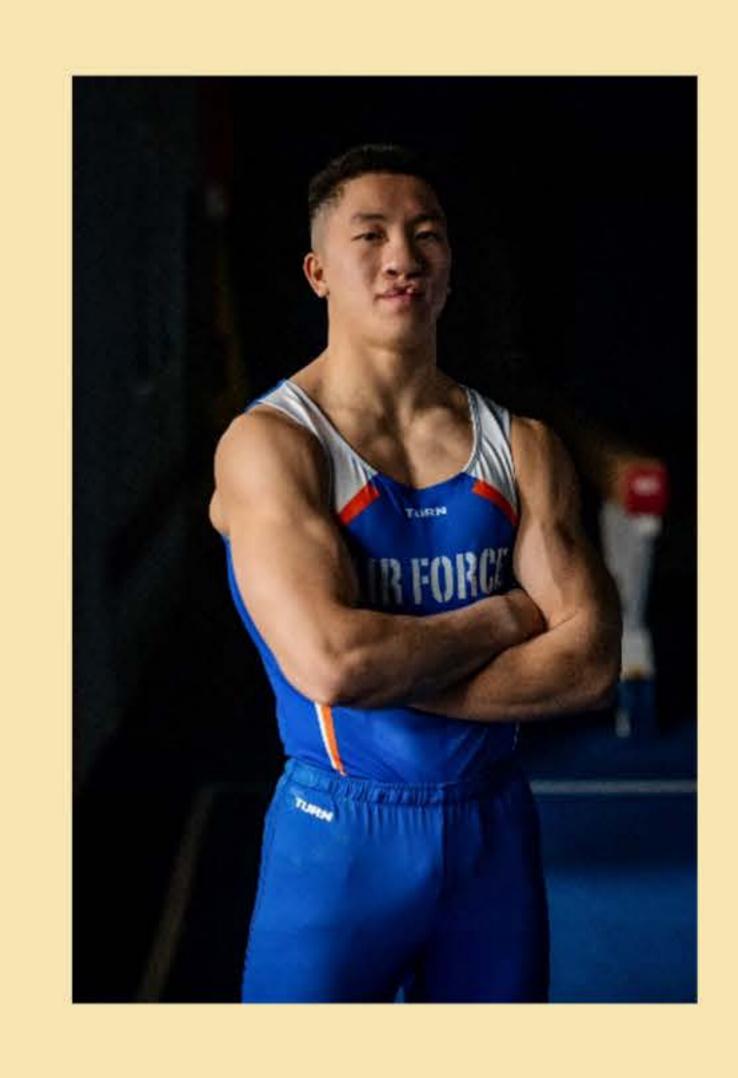

Devyn Iglesias-Fuller - Fargo, ND - has dedicated the past decade to refining his skills at American Gold Gymnastics under the guidance of Coach Davis Beattie. With an impressive record including five North Dakota State Champion titles, eight regional qualifications, and four Academic All-American Awards, Devyn's athletic prowess is undeniable. His achievements extend beyond gymnastics, earning recognition as a National Merit Scholar Finalist and recipient of the National Hispanic Recognition Award. As the Editor-In-Chief of his school newspaper, Devyn demonstrates leadership and a commitment to excellence in all pursuits. Passionate about reading, gaming, and music, Devyn's well-rounded nature complements his dedication to both athletics and academics. With aspirations to study biochemistry and continue his gymnastics career at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Devyn is poised for future success both inside and outside of the gym.

With an illustrious gymnastics career spanning 12 years at Air Force Gymnastics, Josef Volk has established himself as a formidable athlete under the mentorship of coaches Jaclyn Bertrand and Ryan Rosinsky. Throughout his journey, Josef has achieved remarkable milestones, including being crowned a 4-time USAG All American, a 3-time Junior Nationals Qualifier, and a valued member of the 2023 Region 4 Regional Team. Beyond the gym, Josef's academic prowess shines brightly, as evidenced by his consistent placement on the Honor Roll and his induction into the National Honor Society. Moreover, Josef generously shares his expertise by tutoring in mathematics and science while showcasing his musical talents with his high school band, where he clinched first place in a drum solo set. As Josef transitions to the next phase of his life, he looks forward to pursuing his passion for Biomedical Engineering at UW-Madison School of Engineering. Amidst his busy schedule, Josef finds solace in hobbies such as golf, motor sports, and music, embodying a well-rounded and accomplished individual.

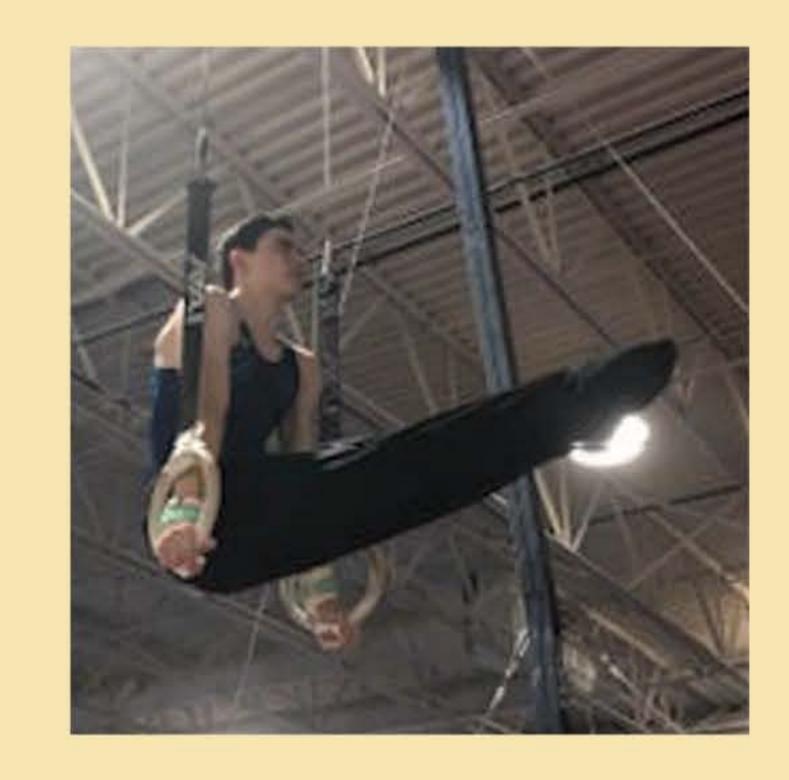

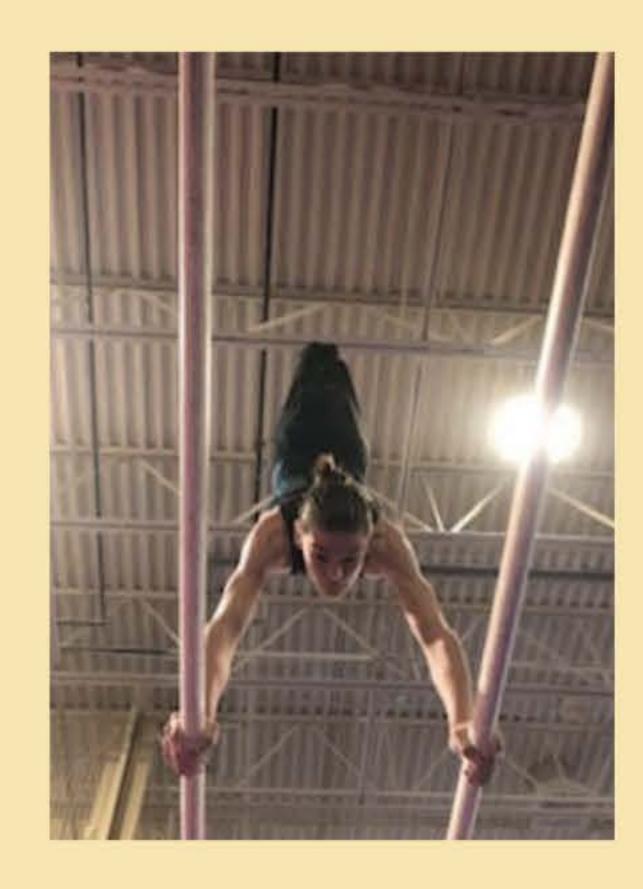

Carter Pade – Lakeville, MN - the son of Christina and Mathew Pade. With an unwavering passion for gymnastics, Carter has dedicated eight years of his life to mastering the art of this demanding sport. As a valued member of the Elite Gymnastics Academy, under the expert guidance of Coach Vadim Balakirev, Carter has showcased remarkable skill and determination. His gymnastics journey is adorned with numerous accolades, including the prestigious AA MN State Championship title in 2022, a 3rd place on Pommel at the MN State Championship in 2023, and a 2nd place on Pommel at the Western Championship in the same year. Carter's excellence in gymnastics has been duly recognized with the MN Gymnastics Letter Award in both 2022 and 2023. Beyond his athletic pursuits, Carter maintains an exceptional academic record, boasting a perfect 4.0 GPA. Outside the gym and classroom, Carter finds joy in various hobbies such as swimming, cooking, skimboarding, and wakeboarding, which further reflect his diverse interests and adventurous spirit. Looking towards the future, Carter aspires to continue his academic journey by pursuing a master's degree in mechanical engineering, a testament to his commitment to excellence both on and off the mat. With his relentless drive and multifaceted talents, Carter Pade undoubtedly stands poised to make significant strides in both his academic and athletic endeavors.

Matthew Sells - Wausau, WI - has dedicated nine years to gymnastics under Coach Taj Jefferson at GymSport Gymnastics. With parental support from Jim and Michelle Sells, he's honed his skills and now plans to study video production at North Central Technical College. When not in the gym, Matthew enjoys time with his dogs, Gary and Biscuit. His resilience and passion define his journey, inspiring all around him.

Elliott Muller - Wauwatosa, WI - is immensely grateful for the unwavering support of his loving parents throughout his journey. For the past 14 years, Elliott has been honing his skills in the realm of gymnastics, finding his passion amidst the twists and turns of the sport. Under the guidance of esteemed coaches Dan Arcus and Jake Shroeder at M&M Gymnastics, Elliott has not only developed his physical prowess but also cultivated a strong work ethic and resilience. Beyond the gym, Elliott is a stellar student, consistently earning a spot on the honor roll and being commended as a National Merit Scholar. His academic prowess is matched by his athletic achievements, having qualified for nationals in gymnastics and earning the title of 4-time Academic All-American. Looking towards the future, Elliott plans to pursue his academic interests in architectural engineering, a field where his creativity and problem-solving skills can flourish. Outside of his rigorous academic and athletic pursuits, Elliott finds joy in playing the oboe, immersing himself in the world of video games, and exploring the great outdoors through hiking adventures. With his unwavering dedication, multifaceted talents, and a vision for the future, Elliott Muller is undoubtedly poised for success in all his endeavors

Tristan Friday - Colgate, WI - emerges as a beacon of dedication and excellence in the realm of gymnastics. For a decade, he has committed himself to the sport, training diligently under the watchful eyes of coaches Dan Arcus and Jake Shroeder at M&M Gymnastics. With each routine, Tristan exemplifies resilience and precision, culminating in his remarkable achievements as a Westerns qualifier and regional champion. His journey is a testament to the unwavering support of his parents, Kim Havile and Maryl Friday, whose guidance has propelled him toward success both on and off the

Beyond the confines of gymnastics, Tristan's ambitions extend to the academic realm. With aspirations of delving into the intricate field of Toxicology, he sets his sights on UW Milwaukee. Yet, his pursuits are not confined solely to academia; Tristan finds solace and inspiration in music, having qualified for the State solo & ensemble competition. Additionally, his love for the outdoors shines through in his hobbies of microscopy, hiking, and kayaking. As Tristan embarks on the next chapter of his journey, he stands as a testament to the harmonious balance between athletic prowess, academic ambition, and a zest for life's diverse experiences.

Landon Young - Bennington, NE -throughout his 13-year journey at Metro Stars Gymnastics, under the expert guidance of Coach Kyle King, Landon has epitomized dedication and passion, exemplified by his two-time recognition as an Academic All-American. Beyond his achievements in the gym, Landon's pursuits extend far and wide. He proudly represents his family, Brad and Melissa Young, who have been unwavering pillars of support. Off the gymnastics floor, Landon finds joy in myriad activities, from the thrill of video games to the camaraderie of basketball games. Yet, his true spirit shines brightest through his altruistic endeavors, volunteering and working diligently at the YMCA, alongside his commitment to environmental advocacy. As he embarks on his next chapter, Landon sets his sights on majoring in Environmental Policy, his academic pursuits enriched by his accomplishments, including his Associate in Applied Science Business Administration Degree from Metro Community College and participation in the prestigious Yale Young Global Scholars Program. Though his college destination remains undecided, one thing is certain: Landon Young's impact transcends the boundaries of the gymnasium, leaving an enduring legacy of excellence and compassion.

Solen Chiodi - St. Paul, MN - has spent the last decade honing his skills and passion for gymnastics at Mini-Hops Gymnastics. Under the guidance of coaches Doug Price and Kostya Kolesnikov, Solen has not only excelled in the sport but also garnered significant achievements. With unwavering support from his family - parents Jeff and Kristin, sisters Bella and Ida, as well as his grandparents - Solen's journey in gymnastics has been marked by perseverance and determination. Beyond the mats, Solen finds joy in various hobbies including yoga, photography, and even indulging in a game of Fortnite. His achievements extend beyond gymnastics, with notable recognitions such as being a two-time recipient of the Kurt Thomas Foundation Scholarship and earning a spot on the Junior National Team in 2022-2023. His crowning achievement came at the DTB Pokal 2023 in Stuttgart, Germany, where he clinched the Team Champion title, along with individual medals in Vault (Silver) and Floor (Bronze). Looking ahead, Solen is poised to continue his gymnastics journey at the University of Michigan, where he will represent the Men's Gymnastics Team while pursuing a major in Applied Exercise Science at the University of Michigan School of Kinesiology. Solen extends his heartfelt gratitude to his coaches, family, and friends for their unwavering support throughout his gymnastics career

Cameron Klimmek - Ramsey, MN - has spent 14 years shaping his identity as a gymnast under the mentorship of coaches Doug Price and Kostya Kolesnikov at MHG. Alongside his family—Rose, John, Josie, and Brayden—Cameron has pursued excellence in both athletics and academics. As he prepares to embark on a new chapter at the University of Michigan, Cameron will continue his gymnastics journey while pursuing a major in Biology, with aspirations of becoming a neurosurgeon. His three-time recognition for highest honors in academics and his diverse array of hobbies, including golf and chess, reflect his unwavering dedication and ambition. As he bids farewell to his high school years, Cameron stands poised to conquer new heights, serving as an inspiration to his peers and a testament to the power of unwavering determination.

Charlie Gambach - Wayzata, MN – has had an impressive 14-year journey at Mini Hops Boys, Charlie's athleticism and dedication have been fostered by his supportive family—parents Betsy and Jeff, and sister Emma—whose unwavering encouragement has been his bedrock. Guided by Coach Nong Quang, Charlie's commitment to gymnastics at level 10 has seen him rise to prominence, marked by notable achievements such as clinching the MN State AA Champion title and securing 2nd AA at the 2022 Men's DP West Championships. Beyond the gym, Charlie's athletic pursuits extend to percussion and drumline, where he's earned accolades as a MN All-State Percussionist and Drumline Rank Lieutenant. Amidst his busy schedule, he finds joy in hobbies like traveling, woodworking, and indulging his passion for cars through driving. As Charlie looks ahead to his collegiate journey at St. Olaf College, he remains open to diverse career paths and majors, all while carrying his enduring passion for athletics and excellence into every endeavor

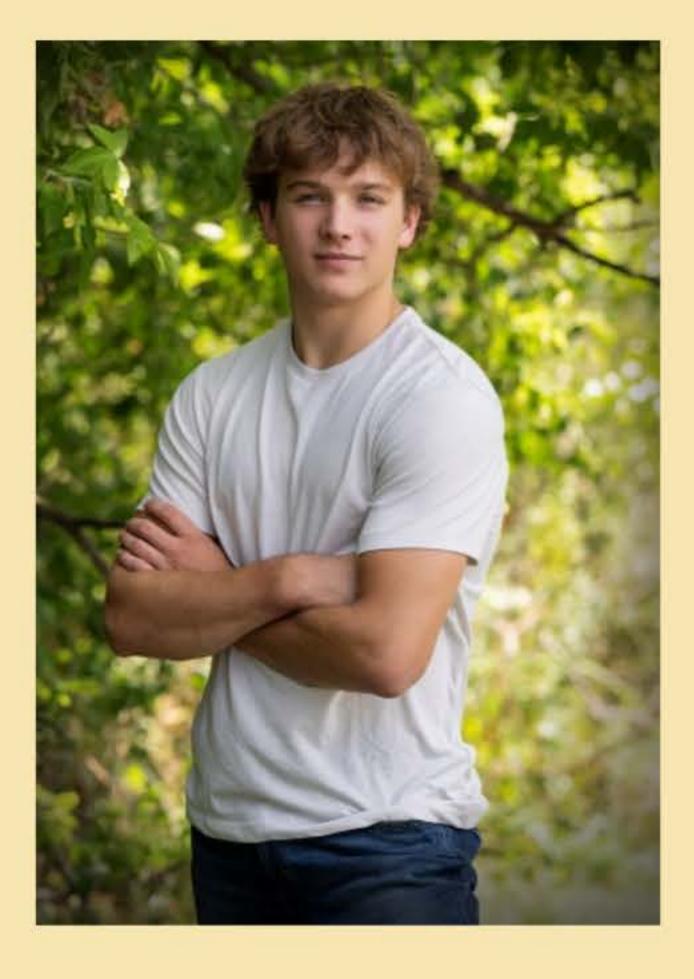

Conor Willeke - Lincoln, NE - over the past seven years at the Nebraska School of Gymnastics, Conor has exemplified grace and strength under the guidance of his coaches Chuck Chmelka, Pablo Schumaker, and Nick Cramer. Throughout his journey, Conor has consistently demonstrated his commitment to excellence, earning recognition as a Ken Chmelka award recipient and Academic All-American for three consecutive years. Beyond the mats, Conor's pursuits extend into academics, where he has been an active member of the National Honor Society, earning academic letters for his outstanding GPA. As he embarks on the next chapter of his life, Conor will be attending Nebraska Wesleyan University to pursue a degree in Finance. When he's not mastering routines or hitting the books, Conor finds solace in the adrenaline rush of mountain biking. With his unwavering determination and multifaceted talents, Conor is poised to make a lasting impact both in and out of the gymnastics arena

Henry Krebs - Rochester, MN – is the son of Amy and Brock Krebs. He's cultivated his dedication and discipline through years of training at ROGA under the mentorship of Dylan LeClair. With an impressive 14-year journey in gymnastics, Henry has not only excelled in the sport but also embodied leadership as team captain and earned a remarkable 6x letter winner status along with being a 4x academic All-American. His gymnastics prowess has taken him to national competitions in both 2022 and 2023, solidifying his position as a standout athlete. Beyond the mat, Henry's academic achievements shine just as brightly. He proudly received the High Honors Diploma and garnered congressional nominations to three separate service academies, a testament to his intellectual prowess and commitment to serving his country.

Looking ahead, Henry sets his sights on the prestigious U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he plans to pursue his passion for engineering while continuing to hone his gymnastic skills at the collegiate level. Even amidst his rigorous training and academic pursuits, Henry finds time for his hobbies, indulging in games of chess and rounds of golf. With his unwavering determination, outstanding accomplishments, and unwavering commitment to excellence, Henry Krebs stands poised to make significant contributions both in the academic arena and on the gymnastics floor, embodying the values of dedication, leadership, and integrity every step of the way

Leo Mandella - Brookfield, WI - boasts an impressive senior bio marked by years of commitment and achievement in the sport. Under the guidance of his supportive parents, Steve and Kristin Mandella, Leo has thrived at Salto Gymnastics, where he has been coached by esteemed mentors including Vitali Rudnitski, Alex Belanovski, Anthony Ingrelli, and Andrei Kan. With a remarkable 12-year journey in gymnastics, commencing at the tender age of six, Leo has exhibited unwavering determination and skill. Despite the demands of rigorous training, Leo has maintained a balanced lifestyle, indulging in hobbies such as arts and crafts, playing the piano, and solving puzzles.

Beyond the realm of gymnastics, Leo has distinguished himself as a versatile athlete, contributing to his high school's varsity swim and dive team. Notably, he was part of the state team that clinched victory in 2022, a testament to his prowess beyond the mats. Demonstrating academic excellence alongside his athletic pursuits, Leo is set to graduate with an Honors Diploma in June 2024.

Within the realm of gymnastics, Leo's accomplishments speak volumes. As an Academic All-American, he exemplifies the fusion of intellectual prowess with athletic prowess. His stellar performances have seen him clinch victory at regionals for all-around in his age group in 2017, a feat that has been consistently mirrored by his qualification for nationals every year since achieving Level 10 status. Looking ahead, Leo harbors aspirations of pursuing higher education in Mechanical Engineering, reflecting his dedication to both intellectual and physical pursuits. With a promising future on the horizon, Leo Mandella stands as a shining example of perseverance, passion, and excellence in the world of male gymnastics.

Lucas Bueling - Woodbury, MN - has honed his gymnastics skills for over 16 years at TAGS South in Apple Valley under the expert guidance of coaches Tony Aretz and Austin Thomas. Throughout his gymnastics journey, Lucas has soared to great heights, supported wholeheartedly by his proud parents Clint and Robyn Bueling, sister Lily, and the unwavering encouragement of his grandparents and dedicated coaches.

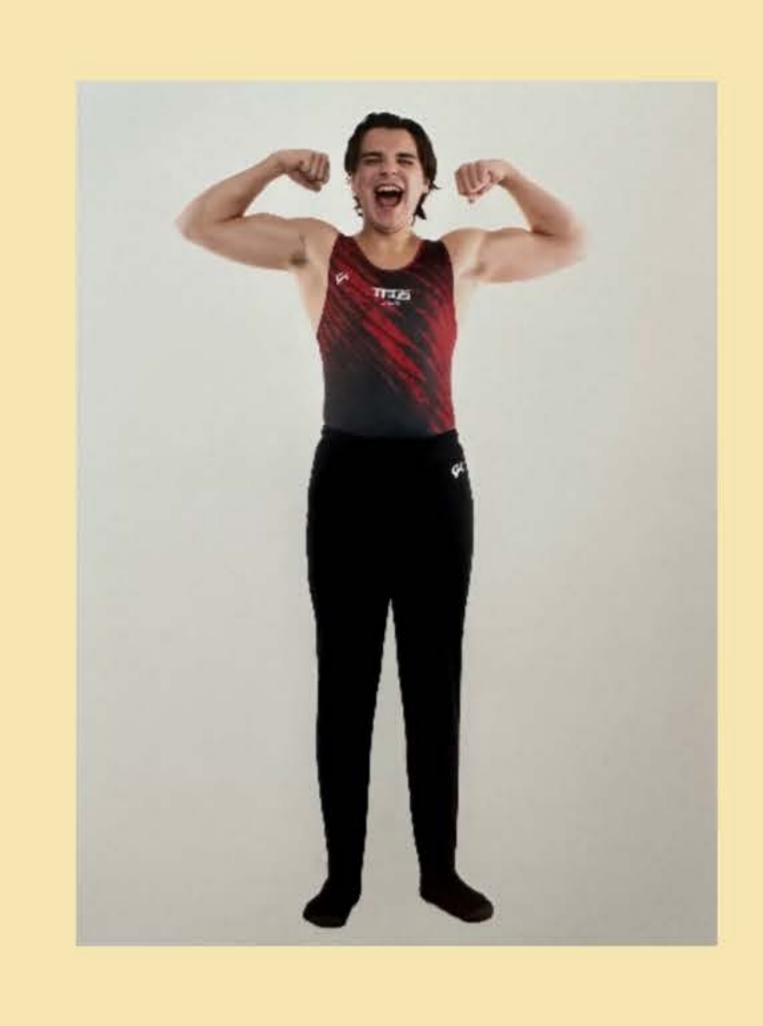

This talented athlete, donning an adult small shirt, has not only excelled in gymnastics but has also showcased his prowess in various arenas.

Beyond the gym, Lucas has been recognized for his outstanding achievements, including nominations for the Broadway World Regional Awards for Best Actor and Best Supporting Actor in a Musical in both 2022 and 2023. Additionally, he has earned a place on the Dean's List at Century College, garnered honors on the MN Connections Academy Honor Roll, and secured membership in the prestigious National Society of High School Scholars.

In the realm of gymnastics, Lucas's dedication and hard work have not gone unnoticed. He boasts the title of a four-time USAG Academic All-American and has qualified for the 2022 Western National Championship, showcasing his prowess and commitment to excellence.

Looking towards the future, Lucas has his sights set on attending DePaul University in Chicago, where he will pursue a Bachelor of Fine Arts in film, specializing in directing and cinematography, thanks to a prestigious presidential scholarship. Despite his busy schedule, Lucas remains passionate about gymnastics and hopes to continue coaching recreational gymnastics, perhaps delving into adult gymnastics, parkour, and rock climbing. His love for the arts extends beyond the gym, as he revels in musical theater, tinkering with Legos, playing video games, indulging in movies, and embarking on adventures through travel.

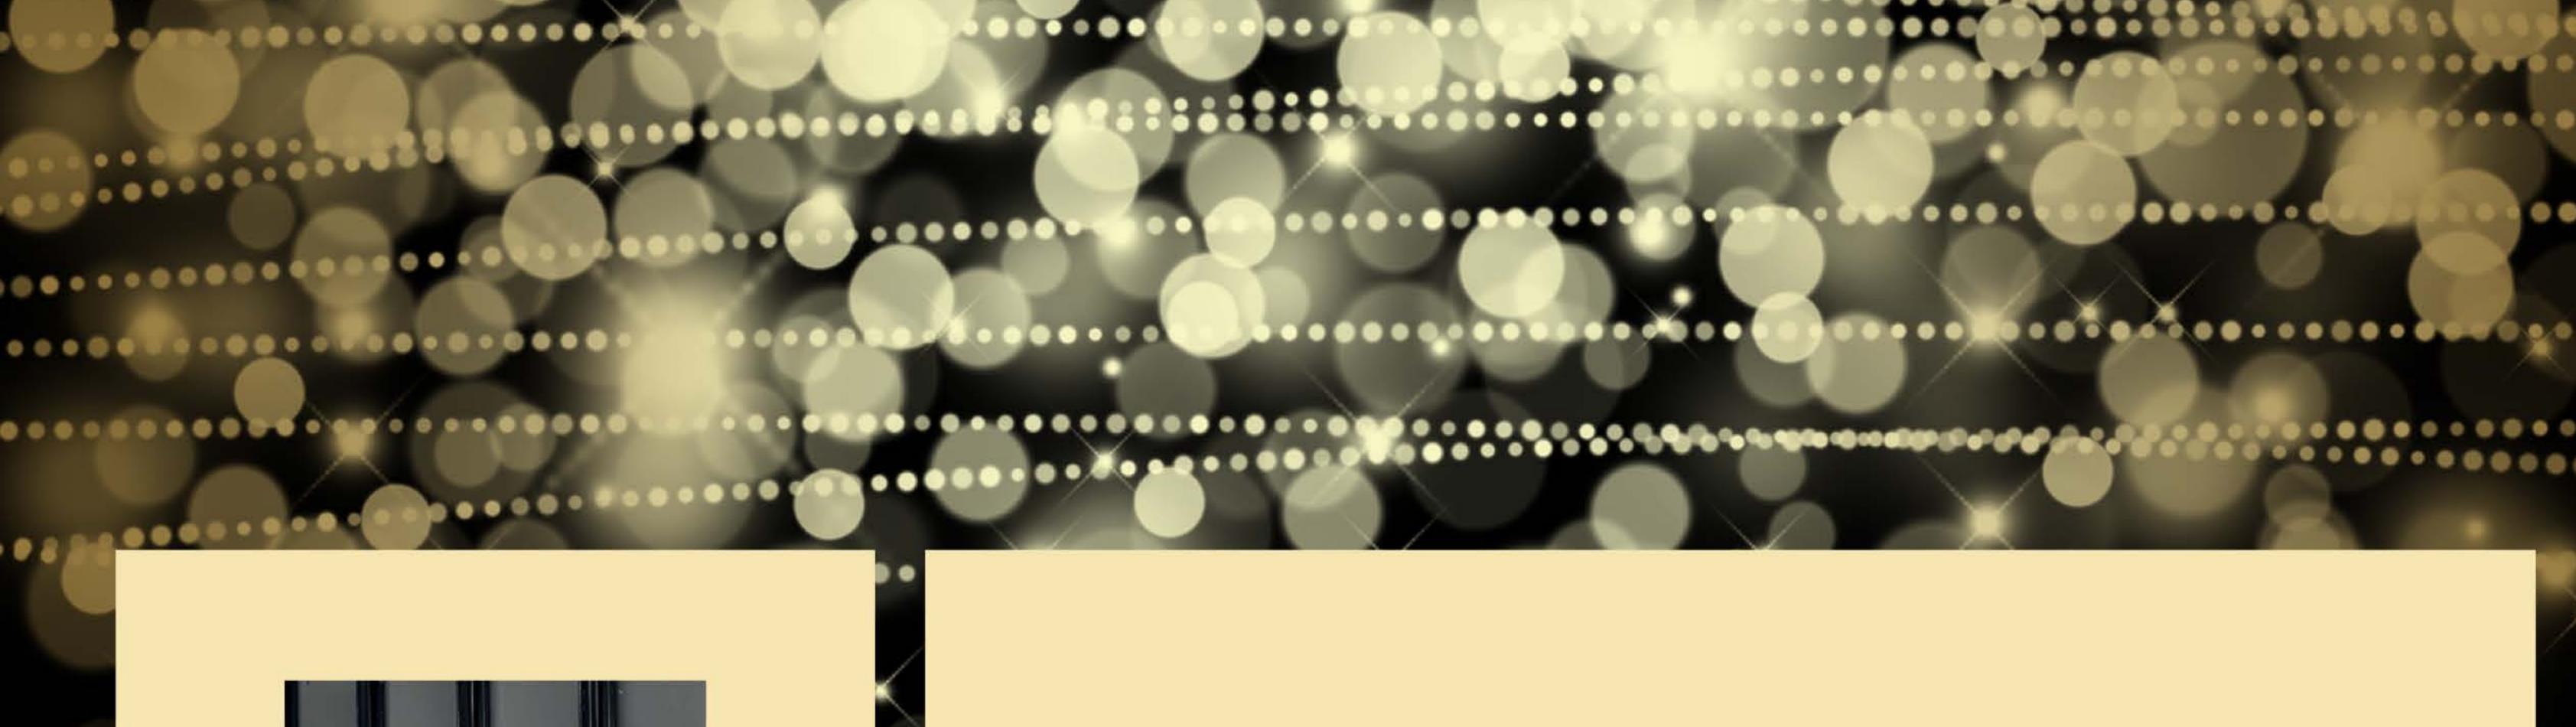

In reflecting on his gymnastics journey, Lucas expresses profound gratitude for the invaluable lessons learned and the enduring friendships forged along the way. For him, gymnastics isn't just a sport but a way of life—a testament to his unwavering dedication and enduring spirit. As he embarks on the next chapter of his journey, Lucas carries with him the mantra: "Once a gymnast, always a gymnast!"

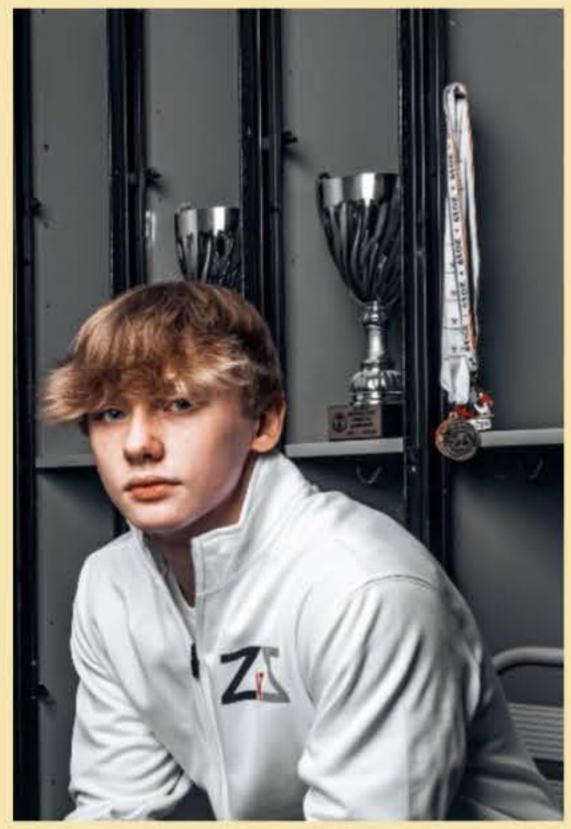

Nathan Holub - Saint Cloud, MN - is the son of Jennifer and Greg Holub. For over a decade, Nathan has honed his craft as a member of the esteemed Twin City Twisters, under the expert guidance of Coach Drew Shields. His unwavering commitment and relentless work ethic have propelled him to great heights, culminating in a remarkable qualification for the Nationals in 2022. Beyond the mat, Nathan is an academic enthusiast with aspirations to delve into the realm of nuclear engineering. When he's not immersed in gymnastics or academics, Nathan finds solace in the worlds of literature and art, indulging in his passions with fervor and creativity.

As Nathan prepares to embark on the next chapter of his journey, his achievements stand as a testament to his perseverance and dedication. With a steadfast resolve and a thirst for knowledge, he is poised to make a significant impact in the field of nuclear engineering. Armed with a diverse range of interests and a tenacious spirit, Nathan is primed to excel both inside and outside the classroom, leaving an indelible mark on the world around him.

Ace Morello - Elkhorn, NE - trains at ZnZ Gymnastics under coaches Andrew and Scott Zymball. With six years of gymnastics experience, he's known for his grace and skill. Outside of the gym, Ace plans to pursue a degree in architectural engineering, blending her passion for design with her analytical mind. In his spare time, he enjoys diving into the virtual worlds of video games.

Kejuan Joe Pettis - Omaha, NE - embodies resilience and dedication as a senior gymnast. With an impressive 11-year journey in gymnastics, he's cultivated his skills under the guidance of mentors at ZnZ Gymnastics, notably coached by Scott and Andrew Zymball, Dave Contreras, and Brandon. Kejuan's passion for the sport led him to become a two-time national qualifier, showcasing his proficiency and competitive spirit. Beyond the gym, Kejuan is supported by his loving family, comprised of his mother Michaela and stepfather Nate, who have been instrumental in his pursuit of excellence. As he prepares to transition into higher education, Kejuan aims to channel his athletic experiences into a career in physical therapy, blending his passion for sports with a desire to help others.

Outside of his athletic pursuits, Kejuan finds joy in various hobbies, including working out, indulging in movies, and spending quality time with friends. His commitment to academic excellence is equally remarkable, as evidenced by his four-time recognition as an Academic All-American. Kejuan's multifaceted dedication not only reflects his tenacity in gymnastics but also underscores his holistic approach to personal growth and achievement, setting him on a path to make meaningful contributions both in and out of the gym.
